PRESENTATIONS (not to exceed 15 minutes each)

Student Equity and Achievement Committee (SEAC) - 2nd Read of Equity Plan & Approval

- Thank you for all the feedback! A lot of the questions can be answered in the detailed report. We only gave the scaled back version to be reviewed due to the amount of information. We have incorporated minor changes, nothing new has been introduced, only enhanced current information.
- Next vote will be in November/December depending on the outcome at Cypress college as we are working in tandem with them.
- A concern was presented that programs can't be initiated by classified, only through Faculty. How much hiring can we do to get these programs going? What accountability is there to get it done?
- Matthew Muranaga made motion was made to endorse 2nd draft of SEAC report, seconded by Denise Leacock-Kendall. Motion carried unanimously.

COMMITTEE AND REP UPDATES (not to exceed 1 minute each)

- Faculty Senate (Senate rep) – Vote on SEAC today. There was discussion on the removal of the most popular Interdisciplinary degree from counseling to Social Sciences, first changes to be made in 2027. Will be an ongoing discussion.
- Student Senate (any attendee from last meeting) – 60 attendees! 45 senators and 10 reps. Will be changing their constitution.
- PAC (A.Shellenbarger) – No update
- CSEA (any attendee from last meeting) – A lot of discussion regarding the Cat issue at Cypress college. CSEA did not have a hand in the new FIT program for Classifieds. Recap of the CSEA conference attended by the E-board. Please reach out to Seija Rhokea

Roles of the Participants in Participatory Governance

To be reviewed Classified Senate:

Classified Senate

The Classified Senate represents the classified staff in participative decision making and in the participatory governance process which develops and formulates policy and practice with no collective bargaining related effect, but not limited to, activities which include: (1) representing the perspective of classified staff in policy and procedure deliberations; (2) offering staff in- service activities; (3) communicating among the various interest groups and classified staff of Fullerton College; (4) collaborating with CSEA for appointment of classified staff on all governance committees; (5) maintaining the delineation of responsibility between the Classified Senate and CSEA. The Classified Senate has no responsibility in any area related to bargaining or working conditions as such issues are the explicit responsibility of CSEA. CSEA has the right to appoint the classified representatives to all participatory governance committees. The College President ensures that the recommendations and opinions of classified staff are given every reasonable consideration within this structure.
